

Research on FINANCIAL EDUCATION

Improving the Research and Data Basis for Financial Education in Germany

- 28 projects aimed at strengthening evidence-based financial education
- 73 project partners from universities, colleges, research institutions, and the field of financial education
- An international research environment with 12 international collaborations
- Workshops for early-career researchers and stakeholders on economic and financial education in lifelong learning

meta-fin.eu/en/projects

topics

Financial Education for Target Groups

- Youth and young adults
- Care leavers
- Migrants
- People in correctional facilities

Financial Education and Lifelong Learning

- Concepts and approaches for lifelong financial education
- Gender-sensitive financial education concepts
- Strategies and concepts for adult education
- Use and opportunities of social media and AI tools

Financial Education in School and Family

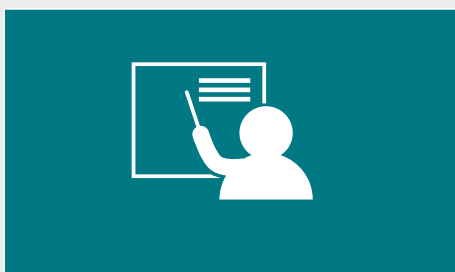

- Learning with serious games
- Development, testing, and evaluation of teaching concepts
- Evidence-based research on teacher professionalisation
- Development of concepts for teacher training

an interdisciplinary field of research

Education

- Educational sciences
- Adult education
- Social pedagogy
- Educational psychology
- Mathematics education
- Media education

Business Education Business Didactics

Economy

- Finance
- Economics
- Business informatics

Social Sciences

- Sociology
- Communication sciences
- Gender studies

goals

Science

- Development of competency models and measurement tools to assess financial literacy in various target groups
- Monitoring the state of financial education in Germany
- Potential of generative AI to promote financial education

Media Development

- Apps for consumer education
- Serious games
- Podcasts, (explanatory) videos
- AI chatbots / AI avatars for financial education support
- Materials for teaching, counselling, and blended learning concepts

Developing, Testing and Analysing Teaching Concepts

- Resources for program planners and teachers in adult education
- Resources for specific life situations and target groups
- Success factors for financial education in lifelong learning
- Guidelines for developing teaching concepts
- Tests to measure financial literacy

MetaFin MetaFin connects the projects of the funding line Research on Financial Education, addresses general research questions, and brings together national and international research results on financial education.

Networking

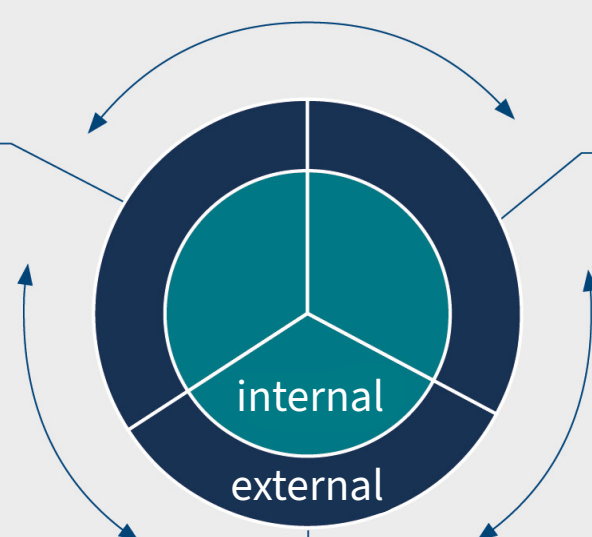

e.g. organisation of symposiums and workshops for young academics

Transfer and Communication

e.g. a podcast series and a journal focused on applied research and knowledge transfer

Accompanying Research

e.g. establishment of a clearing house for financial education research

meta-fin.eu

Contact

DLR Projektträger | Education, Gender |
Skill Development, Participation and Professional Training
Dr. Susanne Rotthege
Telephone: +49 228 3821-1008
E-Mail: finanzielle-bildung@dlr.de